SUE SOJOURNER AND THE '60s CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT

TWEED MUSEUM OF ART, UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DULUTH
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, NOON, LECTURE GALLERY

Sue [Lorenzi] Sojourner, a veteran of the Civil Rights Movement, worked in Holmes County, Mississippi from 1964 -1969. She is now writing a memoir entitled, "FREEDOM: Blacks Transforming Themselves — Growing a Grassroots Movement in 1960s Mississippi as Seen by One (Transformed) White Middle-Class Outside Agitator." It tells of the real dangers and fears that local leaders experienced and how they built one of the most effective grassroots Movements in the state.

Sojourner's talk is in conjunction with her documentary photograph exhibit "The Some People of that Place — 1960s Holmes County, Mississippi: The Local People and Their Civil Rights Movement" at The Venue at Mohaupt Block, 2024 W Superior St, Duluth (old VFW), open weekdays from February 1-26, 9 am - 5 pm
